Strike Ties Up East Coast Ports

Mediators Hope for Quick End, But Dockworkers' Chief Sees Long Fight

NEW YORK (AP)—A strike of 45,000 longshoremen tied up shipping along the Atlantic Coast today from Maine to Virginia.

Mediators and the disputing parties were optimistic over an early settlement, but the president of the striking dockworkers forecast a "knockdown, dragout battle."

Coupled with a 13-day strike of tug and barge crewmen, the dock-workers' walkout almost paralyzed the huge port of New York.

Ocean liners, already forced to dock without the aid of tugs, now faced the prospect of disembarking and taking on passengers compelled to carry their own baggage.

Fuel Supply Dwindles

Of greatest concern, however, was the tugboat strike, which has cut off 70 per cent of fuel deliveries to the Greater New York area, affecting an estimated 15 million persons. Continuation of a three-day cold snap, after a week of relatively mild weather, sharply increased fuel consumption, threatening the area with a serious fuel crisis by the week end.

Negotiators for the International Longshoremen's Assn. and the New York Shipping Assn., whose eleventh hour efforts failed Tuesday to avert a walkout, scheduled a meeting today with federal mediators, including Joseph F. Finnegan, chief of the U. S. Mediation Service.

While notes of optimism were sounded by several negotiators, ILA President William Bradley said, "I don't see any possibility of getting together for a while."

"This is going to be a knockdown, dragout battle between us," he said.

The strike was scheduled to idle ports at Boston, Portland, Me., Providence, R. I., New Bedford, Mass., and Searsport, Me.

Baby Girl is Killed by Bullet

OAKLAND CITY, Ind. (AP)—A baby girl whose parents work in an industrial plant where a trouble-making strike is in progress was shot through the head today by a rifle bullet fired into a house trailer where she slept.

Four-month-old Julia Ann Russell was rushed to Deaconess Hospital in Evansville, Ind., for emergency surgery.

State police said she was hit by one of seven bullets fired into the trailer home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Russell, who work in the office of the Potter-Brumfield Manufacturing Co. at Princeton, Ind. Town marshal Gade Feltner said five bullets hit the trailer.

A strike of the International Association of Machinists union was called last Nov. 5 over a grievance dispute, and a few days later the governor of Indiana ordered 40 state troopers to the scene when local authorities asked protection on grounds they could not cope with strike incidents.

Last week, the homes of three Potter-Brumfield employees were damaged by dynamite blasts and gunfire, but nobody was injured.

Funeral for Mrs. Lowe Thursday 2 p. m.

The body of Mrs. Charles Lowe, former Harrisburg woman who died Sunday night at the home of a nephew in Logan, West Virginia, lies in state at the Turner funeral home. Services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the Harrisburg Methodist church. The Rev. W. L. Cummins will officiate and burial will be in Sunset Hill cemetery.

Birth of Baby in Plane Over Europe Puzzles Law Experts

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The birth of a baby in an airplane over continental Europe had the international law experts in a stew today trying to figure out her nationality.

Mrs. Fritz Fagl, 25, gave birth to a girl in an Israeli plane over German territory Tuesday. Mrs. Fagl and her husband are Austrians. They live in Britain. The plane was enroute from Amsterdam to Vienna.

The Israel "El-Al" Airline said this may be the first case in airline history of the birth of a baby over continental Europe.

Experts said the baby could claim Austrian or Israeli citizenship but not German citizenship because she was born on Israeli territory (the plane) and only over German territory.

Wayne Gidcumb New President of Merchants' Ass'n

Wayne Gidcumb of the C. F. Gidcumb Furniture store was unanimously elected president of the Harrisburg Merchants association yesterday at a noon meeting held at Nick's 45 cafe.

Mr. Gidcumb, who succeeds Dick Parker as head of the organization, stated today that the association yesterday decided upon two events.

First, he stated, it will sponsor a sales course for local persons to be conducted by the Southern Illinois University Extension department in Harrisburg. Its starting date has not been determined but it probably will be held in the Harrisburg Junior high school.

Secondly, the association is planning a merchandising event.

Further details on both of these events will be announced later.

Refused Date, College Student Admits Hurling Acid on Girl's Face

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—A college student was held under $10,000 bond today on charges of searing a girl's face with acid so "she would have scars and marks to remember me."

Authorities said James W. Sprouse, 23, Bakersfield, Calif., signed a statement Tuesday admitting the acid attack against a girl who refused him a date.

Sprouse said he got the idea "from the case where Victor Riesel lost his eyes the same way."

The student was referring to the acid attack in New York last April on Riesel, syndicated labor columnist who had been invited to testify on labor racketeering before a congressional committee. Abraham Telvi, the acid thrower, later was slain by gangsters for demanding more money for the attack that blinded the columnist.

Physicians at St. John's Hospital said the victim, Carol A. Clark, 19, Reading, Mich., was in fair condition with severe burns about the face, arms and legs. However, they said her glasses kept her from being blinded.

Egypt to Permit Israeli Ships If Troops Leave Territory

To Receive Call on TV Program, But Answer is Wrong

Mrs. Otis Reynolds Jr. of Harrisburg will get a call in the morning from the Truth or Consequences television program, shown over WSIL-TV starting at 10:30 a. m.

She will be asked "Who is Mr. Silhouette?"

She will answer "Alan Ameche."

But the answer will be wrong.

Instead of a number of prizes for giving the right answer she will receive a Mohawk rug and pad.

All this is known because Mrs. Reynolds got her call last night, and she gave the incorrect Ameche answer. They explained that the show is staged at night in Los Angeles and a filmed presentation goes out over the NBC network a couple of days later; that her call would be shown Thursday morning.

Mrs. Reynolds was called after she mailed a postal card giving her name, address and telephone number to Truth or Consequences.

Saline Motors Closes; New Firm for Agency

Golconda Man to Operate from Barham-Green Building

The Saline Motor Co., a fixture in the Harrisburg business picture for more than 30 years, closed its doors today and in its place will be a new Chevrolet sales and service agency to be operated by C. M. Townes of Golconda in a new location.

Mr. Townes, Chevrolet agent at Golconda, has secured the contract for the Harrisburg territory, and is moving his equipment into the Barham-Green building on Locust street.

Gordon McGehee, son of the late D. B. McGehee, has been operating the Saline Motors Co. in the Lightner building on West Poplar street since the death of his father Nov. 5.

After D. B. McGehee's death, the contract he had held with Chevrolet was cancelled in December. Since then the son had been operating the business as a service and parts agency.

Mr. Townes was in St. Louis today but it was learned at Golconda that the job of moving the equipment here started yesterday and was continuing today. It is expected that the new Chevrolet agency will be in operation here sometime next week.

No Future Plans

Mr. Townes is retaining some of the Saline Motor Co. personnel, it was learned.

Gordon McGehee today said that he planned to sell the Saline Motors shop equipment. He said he had no immediate plans for the future except to liquidate the garage and his father's estate, which will keep him busy for some time.

His father had been connected with the Saline Motor Co. since it first started operation in Harrisburg in the Mofield building, which is now the Barham-Green building into which the new agency is moving.

Mr. McGehee today publicly thanked all of the people who have been customers of Saline Motors throughout the year for their patronage and thanked all those who have worked for the company for their services.

Kiwanians Selling Tickets for Chili Supper on Feb. 26

Members of the Kiwanis club are busy selling tickets to the annual chili supper which will be held Tuesday, Feb. 26, from 5 to 8 p. m. at the Masonic temple.

All proceeds of the chili supper will go into the club's underprivileged children's fund and the club is hopeful of a good attendance to help in its worthwhile activities.

At last night's meeting, held at the Masonic temple, Ed McGraw, Boy Scout representative of the Egyptian Council, was the guest speaker.

He named some of the great men, such as Lincoln and Washington, who have birthdays during February and stated the month was an important one to the Boy Scouts as it also is the anniversary month for the founding of Scouting.

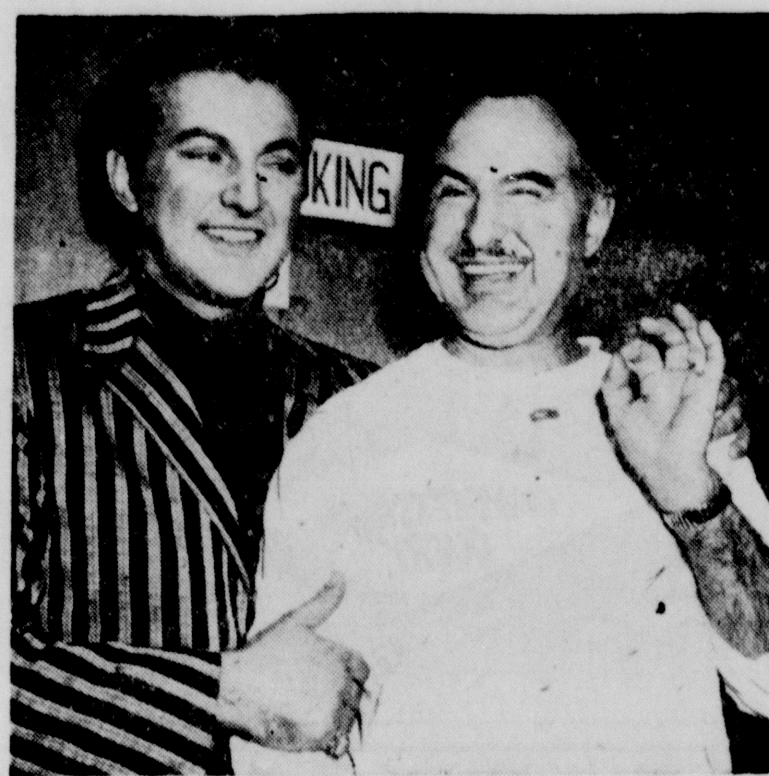

All men who are great, he stated, are great, not because of their money, but because of services which they have rendered to mankind.

"We are prone to forget that the boys of today will be the community leaders of tomorrow, and it is up to us to equip them for the job," Mr. McGraw stated.

"We must help the schools, churches and homes, and Scouting is one of the best ways to help fit boys for their future tasks," he said.

Mr. McGraw said it is the duty of everyone, either as fathers or citizens, to learn what Scouting is and what it can do for the boys of the community.

President Richard Davenport, in introducing Mr. McGraw, urged the club members to help support the forthcoming Boy Scout drive both financially and with active work to help make the campaign a success.

House Committee Approves SIU, Statehouse Emergency Funds

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Emergency appropriations of $260,000 for the Statehouse Commission and $400,000 for Southern Illinois University were approved Tuesday by the House Appropriations Committee.

The extra money for the Statehouse Commission, which ran into controversy in the Senate over a luxuriously furnished lounge for legislators, was approved without any dissenting votes in the committee. One member voted only "present."

Sen. Everett R. Peters (R-St. Joseph), committee chairman, told the House committee that "I should have asked for twice as much money in the beginning, then returned what we didn't need, and I would have been a hero."

Peters said contracts for the lounge and other Capitol improvements were let only after "tough bidding."

SIU President Delyte W. Morris told the committee the university needed the extra money to accommodate larger-than-expected enrollments. He said tuition for Illinois resident students at SIU was $60 a year and that to increase it would work a hardship on their families.

Rep. Paul Powell (D-Vienna) said he would prefer to cut relief rolls "than deny one kid an education." He said many SIU students came from southern Illinois families who had farms with land so poor "you couldn't raise an umbrella."

Bills introduced in the Legislature Tuesday would:

Set state speed limits of 65 miles an hour daytime and 55 miles at night, with a 25 mile limit at urban areas. The bill also would permit the highway division to fix speed limits at 70 miles on limited access highways and to set minimum limits where slow traffic would create hazards.

Appropriate $1,250,000 to the University of Illinois for operation of a research and teaching cancer hospital in the Chicago Medical Center.

Authorize the state to issue $422,250,000 in bonds for construction and improvements at state institutions, including state colleges and universities and office buildings. Gov. William G. Stratton has proposed such a bond issue in the amount of 236 million dollars.

Establish a state minimum wage law of 90 cents an hour in places where four or more persons are employed.

Two bills were introduced to lower the population requirement for a circuit to have four judges. The present population requirement is 350,000. One bill would make it 250,000, and the other 265,000.

Senate Passes Emergency Welfare Measure

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The Senate passed and sent to the House today a $3,474,300 emergency appropriation for the Public Welfare Department to buy commodities needed at state institutions.

The bill included these amounts for food and clothing and other items at various institutions:

Kankakee State Hospital, $18,000; Peoria State Hospital, $261,000; Alton State Hospital, $279,000; East Moline State Hospital, $41,000; and Elgin State Hospital, $365,000.

The Senate also passed and sent to the House a bill providing prison, rather than jail or penal farm, sentences for narcotics violators.

The bill is aimed at reducing overcrowding at the State Prison Farm at Vandalia and in the Cook County Jail.

Assurance is Sent to Dulles by Hammarskjold

Israeli Premier, Cabinet Prepare Answer to U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Egypt has informed United Nations Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold that it will allow Israeli shipping to pass through the Gulf of Aqaba if Israeli troops withdraw from Egyptian territory, informed sources said today.

This assurance was relayed by Hammarskjold to Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, who, in turn, passed it on to Abba Eban, Israeli ambassador to the United States.

This was the key development which enabled Dulles to come up with his new two-point plan aimed at getting remaining Israeli forces to withdraw from Egyptian territory and at providing Israel some assurances of protection from future Egyptian attacks.

Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion summoned his cabinet ministers for a meeting today in Jerusalem to prepare a reply to the Dulles plan. The answer was expected to include demands for ironclad guarantees that the Sinai Desert never again will be used as a base for commando attacks and that the Gulf of Aqaba will be open to Israeli shipping.

Doubt Egypt's Statement

U. S. officials warned, however, that if the plan is not accepted, the United States would go along with an almost-certain move in the United Nations to apply sanctions (reprisals) against Israel for refusing a U. N. order to withdraw its troops from Egypt.

The big question was whether Israel would accept Egypt's private assurance to Hammarskjold that it recognizes the principle of freedom of navigation in the Aqaba Gulf or whether the Jewish nation would demand a stronger guarantee that the principle will be adhered to.

Official Israeli spokesmen told United Press in Jerusalem that they doubted Hammarskjold's statement that Egypt is ready to comply with the 1949 armistice agreement. Since May, 1956, when Egypt made such a promise, 48 Israelis have been killed and 105 wounded, they said.

The U. S. Plan

Dulles told Eban Monday that in return for the withdrawal of Israeli forces from Egyptian territory controlling the mouth of the gulf and from the disputed Gaza Strip, the United States would:

1. Declare that it considers the gulf open to the shipping of all nations, including that of Israel. Egyptian guns formerly kept Israeli vessels out of the waterway.

2. Support a move to have U. N. troops or U. N. observers stationed in the Gaza Strip to keep it from being used as a base for Egyptian commando raids into Israel.

Four Armed Bandits Rob Mount Vernon Service Station

MOUNT VERNON, Ill. (AP)—Four armed men took $50 from a service station attendant here early today.

Police said the robbers missed getting another $50 at the Liberty station when the attendant, Lester Ratcliffe, told them he could not open a safe.

The robbers ripped off the telephone receiver and forced Ratcliffe to stand with his face to the wall while they escaped.

FBI Arrests One Of Its 10 Most Wanted Criminals

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The FBI arrested one of its 10 "most wanted criminals" today on a tip from two newspaper readers who recognized his published picture.

FBI officials said escaped Utah convict Robert L. Green was seized in a St. Paul bus depot armed with a .32 caliber automatic. He surrendered without a battle, however, and was charged with unlawful flight to avoid confinement.

Green's name was added to the wanted roster just two days ago. He had been sought by federal agents since Sept. 7, 1954, when he and a fellow convict dashed to freedom from the Utah State Prison at Draper accompanied by a hall of bullets from guards' guns. He had been serving sentences of one to 20 years for burglary and five years to life for armed robbery.

The Green Pastures

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT

The nation's top labor leaders, with certain exceptions, live pretty much like big businessmen, or big politicians. The lean, hard days of fighting on the barricades are over for most of them.

The organizations they head are in some instances massive. They administer operations that would make some businessmen green with envy. With their huge welfare and pension funds, they control the expenditure and investment of many millions.

A lot of these union chieftains have long played their power roles to the hilt. They have never disguised their interest in such lush sun-and-sand spots as Miami Beach, which traditionally has served as the site for the AFL (now AFL-CIO) executive council's winter meetings.

Reports from this season's gathering indicate that the upper echelons generally are riding higher than ever.

Dave Beck, head of the teamsters' union, spread out comfortably in a $122-a-day hotel suite. James C. Pettillo, musicians' union boss, roughed it in a $49-a-day single. Such other union presidents as David McDonald, steelworkers, and Alex Rose, hat makers, were among those who availed themselves of Miami's newest and most fashionable facilities.

Their scale of living doesn't deteriorate noticeably when they step outside their hotels. Cadillac cars are a favored form of transportation. Golf, fishing in chartered boats, the race track and the celebrated eating places draw the boys in swarms.

Of course some are just too busy with union affairs to live it up. And some consciously refrain from any indulgence in luxury.

Walter Reuther, AFL-CIO vice president, falls into the latter category. An old tilter against the businessman's windmills, he evidently wants to a old any behavior that might mar his status as a proper antagonist of big business.

It is not enough for Reuther that he dwells more modestly than some of his colleagues, or that he flew to Miami on a tourist-class plane. Firmly entrenching himself with the "have-nots," he squeezes his own breakfast or orange juice in his hotel room.

Obviously this is dedication to a cause.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Eisenhower Did Not Know United Nations Once Adopted Resolution Critical Of Egypt. Aqaba Islands Are Vital For Israeli Commerce To Orient; Dulles Has Consistently Failed To Recognize Importance Of Package Peace Plan For Near East.

WASHINGTON. — The President still seems handicapped by a lack of intimate knowledge regarding important events in the civilian world.

At last week's press conference, he was asked why he would not apply sanctions to Egypt as well as Israel, in view of the fact that Egypt likewise had spurned a United Nations resolution forbidding her ban on Israeli ships through the Suez Canal.

I am not aware of any resolution the UN has enacted to do anything about it, the President replied.

I did not know that on Sept. 1, 1951, the UN Security Council unanimously adopted a resolution calling upon Egypt to cease its ban on Israeli shipping through the canal. This had the same force as the recent UN resolutions calling upon Israel to withdraw from the Gaza strip and from the small islands in the Gulf of Aqaba. However, no sanctions were applied to force Egypt to obey, and Israel lacked the economic which Colonel Nasser now holds over the west by threatening to close Suez.

What Israel did at the same time her own ship were banned from Suez was to develop the Gulf of Aqaba. This is the back door of Israel and is why the two little disputed islands are so important. The Gulf of Aqaba is a long finger of water reaching down from southern Israel to the Red Sea and thence to the Indian Ocean. By using it, Israel can ship over land, across her own southern desert, the Negev, and reach the Orient without using Suez.

This route could also be of tremendous importance if a pipeline was laid across it. Extending all the way over friendly Israeli territory, it would not be subject to Arab interference. Furthermore, a canal rivaling Suez might be built from the Mediterranean to the Gulf of Aqaba — though it would cross hilly terrain and would be expensive.

However, Nasser, after blocking Israeli ships through Suez, then proceeded to seize the strategic islands at the mouth of Aqaba, thereby completely cutting off this vital backdoor route to the Indian Ocean.

This is why Israel refuses to budge from these islands without guarantees they will not fall into hostile Egyptian hands once again.

DULLES' ERRORS

The current impasse over sanctions at the UN is due to three crucial errors in Dulles-Eisenhower policy. They are:

1. When Nasser first seized the canal, Dulles failed to treat the Suez question as a package deal. He failed to realize that Suez, peace between the Arabs and Israel, Near East irrigation, dams on the Nile, and British-French canal rights are all wrapped up together. They cannot be solved piecemeal.

2. After the Israeli-Franco-British attack, when Nasser was cringing in a Cairo cellar, he would have accepted any terms. Dulles was then sick. But Eisenhower failed to exact any terms.

The package peace plan then would have been much more readily accepted. Eisenhower, however, seems so anxious to prove the United States to be the champion of the Afro-Arab bloc that he rescued Nasser without exacting anything in return.

3. Two weeks ago, when Canada proposed a package resolution whereby Israel was guaranteed UN occupation of the Gaza strip and the Aqaba islands simultaneously with her withdrawal, the United States refused to back this resolution. The Canadian peace package plan probably would have been accepted by Israel. But once again the United States went in for piecemeal diplomacy.

UNDER THE DOME

Dewey Short, the defeated GOP congressman from Missouri, is scheduled to be assistant secretary of the Army in charge of civil and military affairs. . . . Congressman Scrivner of Kansas, a Republican power in the House, has told friends he will retire after he finishes out this term. . . . George Meany struck another blow for clean trade unionism when he gave the nod to President Jim Sufridge of the Retail Clerks to join the 29-member AFL-CIO Executive Council. Sufridge heads one of the cleanest and most progressive unions in the USA. . . . Senator Lanier of North Dakota has been polishing up some questions on the family oil holdings of new Under Secretary of State Chris Herter. Mrs. Herter is heiress of part of Standard Oil of New Jersey's millions. Several senators want to know Herter's views on oil and whether he will be active in Near East oil policy. They recall that Dulles' law firm Sullivan and Cromwell, represents Standard of New Jersey, and that the retiring under secretary, Herbert Hoover, Jr., was executive vice president of Union Oil of California whose affiliate, Gulf Oil, has tremendous holdings in the Near East.

CAPITAL NEWS CAPSULES

Symington Warns — Senator Symington of Missouri has suggested to Air Force generals that they might be guilty of perjury if they back down on previous testimony of limping American airpower. Top Air Force brass testified on their needs before Symington's subcommittee last year. Now they are being asked to come to Capitol Hill again to justify the Eisenhower budget budget cuts—under oath. Symington has notified them that if they change their testimony, he will send the conflicting records to the Justice Department for perjury prosecution.

Japan Cuts Farm Imports — American farmers have got it in the neck again. Japan has just informed the USA she is not interested in negotiating a new agreement this year to buy surplus farm commodities. . . . In the last two years Japan has imported 151 million dollars worth of cotton, tobacco, wheat, and American grain. But due to pressure from American textile manufacturers, she has now cut back her exports of cotton cloth to the United States, and in retaliation is now cutting back her imports of surplus food. . . . American manufacturers gain. The farmers lose.

Natural Gas Bill — Congress-

man Oren Harris of Arkansas, author of the controversial natural gas bill, has told friends he won't reintroduce it this year. The bill would boost gas profits at the expense of the housewives, and Harris has confided that he will wait for the Republicans to introduce it and let them get the blame. . . . Eisenhower did not include the gas bill in the first draft of his message to Congress. Then his Texas friends got busy and natural gas was put in at the last minute.

Feb. 15 Final Date to Sign Up For ACP Practices

All Saline county farmers were reminded by Herman Driskell, chairman of the local ASC committee, that February 15 is the final date for the concentrated sign-up period for the 1957 Agricultural Conservation program. Any farmer who needs cost-share assistance in carrying out approved conservation practices should contact the ASC office in the city hall, Harrisburg, on or before the closing date.

Practices approved for Saline county in 1957 include limestone, rock phosphate, waterways, terraces, pasture development, ponds, ditches, and removal of brush.

Although requests for assistance may be filed with the ASC office throughout 1957, approval of requests filed after the closing date will be limited to the extent of funds available at that time. Therefore, said Mr. Driskell, it should be to the advantage of farmers to file requests now.

Under the Agricultural Conservation program the federal government shares with farmers the costs of carrying out specifically approved conservation practices. To be eligible for assistance farmers must file an official request before the practice is started, receive an approval extended by the county committee, and complete the practice according to established specifications and requirements.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

In the beginning was the Word.—John 1:1.

Logos is translated the Word. It means wisdom. Some used to imagine life was a chemical accident, but Caryl's book, The Wisdom of the Body should consign such nonsense to asylums and to idiots. Read this book and no atheist can fool you.

The phrase "sardonic laughter" is derived from the name of the island of Sardinia in the Mediterranean. An herb growing there was once believed to make anyone who ate it laugh himself to death.

CONSTIPATED?

New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloot or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to s-t-r-e-t-c-h stimulate it to action; to a normal urge to purge.

And, of all laxatives, only COLONOID, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONOID's great moisturizing capacity, plus COLONOID's stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONOID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONOID neither gags, bloats nor grips; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions. It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONOID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get COLONOID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98c for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

For the only home he ever owned

... Lincoln chose this Hartford policy

It is the first week of February, 1861. Abraham Lincoln is winding up his affairs in Springfield, Illinois. Next Monday morning he begins the trip to Washington, where he is to be inaugurated as sixteenth President of the United States.

Mr. Lincoln has just said goodbye to a visitor. The man was James L. Hill, local agent of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, who has left Mr. Lincoln the insurance policy which protects the only home he has ever owned.

At Mr. Lincoln's request, Jim Hill had made a thorough inspection of the property only a few days before. He noted the construction of the buildings... measured their dimensions and the distances between them. Then he drew up a policy for the President-elect — and delivered it.

The original Abraham Lincoln policy is treasured by the Hartford to this day. It was presented to Hartford agent Jim Hill by Mr. Lincoln's son, Robert Todd Lincoln, several years after the President's death.

Sorority Members Entertain Husbands With Potluck Dinner

The Xi Beta Omega chapter of Beta Sigma Phi entertained their husbands with a delicious potluck dinner in the Elks Rathskeller on Monday evening, Feb. 11.

Preceding the dinner, a short meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Bernice Kimberlin. Committee members in charge of decoration were: Mesdames Laura Slack, Margaret Moore, Betty Jackson, Jean Gaskins and June Steinmarch.

In keeping with the Valentine theme, the buffet table was covered with a red cloth which was decorated with white hearts. Red and white flowers were used as a centerpiece which was flanked with white candles. The serving tables were covered in white and decorated at random with red hearts sprinkled with glitter. Red candles were used on the serving tables.

After the bountiful dinner, members and their husbands were entertained by Ronnie Doerge, who presented an interesting and enjoyable talk on "Hypnosis." Mr. Doerge went into a lengthy discussion on how hypnosis first was practiced in medieval times and explained that even today, there still is not much known on this varied and fascinating subject. Several guests present participated in trying to be hypnotized. All this brought many laughs and much enjoyment.

Members and their husbands present were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hauptmann, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cain, Mr. and Mrs. William Keen, Mr. and Mrs. James Suver, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dorris, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kimberlin, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Humm, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McGehee, Mrs. Naida Upchurch, Mrs. Margaret Moore, Mr. and Mrs. James Gaskins, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Steinmarch. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Doerge, Mrs. Adele Durham, and Don Darnell.

Mrs. Dean Hill has returned from Tampa, Fla., where she spent a month with her daughter, Mrs. John Singleton and family.

Miss Molliejean Brinkley, Charles Stephens Exchange Wedding Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stephens

Beneath a white arch entwined with holly and white pom poms and flanked with three candelabra with holly on either side Miss Molliejean Brinkley, daughter of Mrs. Ernestine Brinkley of 616 South Land, and Charles Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stephens of 202 North Oakland, Carbondale, exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony performed Jan. 13 at the McKinley Avenue Baptist church.

The Rev. Bert I. Cherry of Carbondale and the Rev. J. D. McCarty, Harrisburg, officiated at the three o'clock service.

The bride, on the arm of her brother, Ben Brinkley, was preceded down the white aisle by the little flower girl, Connie Ann Brinkley, niece of the bride, who carried a pink basket from which she scattered pom pom petals in the path of the bride.

Carrying out the old tradition of "something old, something new, something borrowed, and blue," the bride was lovely in a floor-length gown designed with a bouffant skirt of nylon tulle ruffles over white bridal satin with a draped peplum effect of white lace. She wore double hoops and the fitted bodice of lace over satin was fashioned with a scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. She also wore mits of white satin and a fingertip veil of nylon tulle edged in tiny white lace and fastened to a tiara of small pearl flowers. Her flowers were white pom poms arranged in a cascade with white streamers tied in lovers knots. The gown was made by the bride's mother.

Miss Carolyn Wilson, close friend of the bride, was maid of honor wearing a floor length sheath gown of pink taffeta with a flaring flounce just below the knees. She wore short pink mitts and a short illusion veil of pink net secured to a tiara of pink taffeta and pearls. She, too, carried a cascade of white pom poms.

Nancy Fulkerson, also close friend of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her gown was styled identical to that of the maid of honor and her flowers were also the same.

The little flower girl wore a ballerina length gown of pink taffeta with a scalloped neckline and puff sleeves and a scalloped hemline. She also had elbow length mitts and a tiny crown of pearls with a short veil of pink net.

Robert Walker of Carbondale was best man and Earl (Bud) James of Carbondale was groomsmen. Ushers were the bride's brother, Bob Brinkley, and brothers-in-law, Doyle Hedger and Vernon Wasson, Bill Berger, Emory Hall and Cecil McKinney, all of Carbondale.

Nephew of the bride, Ben Rhett Brinkley, was the bride's ring bearer, carrying a pillow of pink taffeta from which hung black and white streamers. The bridegroom's ring bearer, Mike Edwards, also carried a pink taffeta pillow with pink and white streamers.

Mrs. Doyle Hedger, sister of the bride, was organist, and Mrs. Ben Brinkley, sister-in-law of the bride, was pianist. Soloist was Cecil McGee, Nashville, Tenn., close friend of the bride and groom.

The organist and pianist played solos and duets of semi-classical and popular music preceding the ceremony and Mr. McGee sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," "My Own True Love," and read Sonnet 43 of the Portuguese Hymns, "How Do I Love Thee," by Elizabeth Barrett Browning. During the ceremony he sang "The Wedding Prayer," and following the Wedding March after the bride and groom had gone out of the church, he sang "Walk Hand in Hand With Me."

Mrs. Brinkley chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath dress of embroidered pink taffeta with a bateau neckline cut low in the back. She wore a hat of white brushed fur, elbow length white gloves and a corsage of white pom poms.

The bridegroom's mother wore a wine colored suit with black accessories and a white pom pom corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church dining room, which was decorated by Mrs. E. L. Norman and Mrs. Dewey Williams. Miss Laura Raley was in charge of the registration table. The bride's table was centered with a cake of white with pink rose buds topped with a miniature bride and groom. The bridegroom's cake was of chocolate and iced in white with the words "Here Come's the Groom," written on top. Pink punch was also served. Hostesses were Mrs. Vernon Wasson, sister of the bride, Mrs. Louise Fulkerson, Mrs. Bertha Wilson, Mrs. Fred Armistead, Mrs. Bonnie Penrod, Mrs. Opal Heine, Miss Sandra Lasseter and Miss Sandra Gray.

The bride is a graduate of the Harrisburg Township high school and attended Southern Illinois University, and the bridegroom is a graduate of the Carbondale Community high school and a student of SIU. He is employed at Smith's Motor Sales in Carbondale.

Following a wedding trip the couple is at home at 202 North Oakland, Carbondale.

Out of town guests were: La donna Carpenter, Joyce Pace, Sue Shamblin, Joyce Smith, Bob Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wiswell, Don Travelstead, Mrs. George Young, Mrs. Earnest Morris and daughter, Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Shambill, Jesse Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Earl James, Miss Patricia Bain, Jim Ebbs, Mr. and Mrs. George Stephens, Mrs. Dorthea Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berger, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Pace, Miss Susie Grammer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel McCree, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gunn, Charles Sisk, all of Carbondale, Mrs. Madge Malone of Marion, Cecil McGee and Gene Hansley of Nashville, Tenn.

Mrs. Cleo Tolbert of this city and Mrs. Phil Hurt of Louisville, Ky., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lamhan of Burbank, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reeder of San Diego. Mrs. Tolbert is the mother of Mrs. Lamhan and Mrs. Hurt is her sister. Mrs. Reeder is a niece of Mrs. Lamhan.

Mrs. Alex (Muriel) Cathcart, 1115 South McKinley, is in room 518-C, Barnes hospital, St. Louis, undergoing clinical examinations.

Winston Gidcumb, who owns and operates the Gidcumb grocery on West Sloan, underwent surgery for the removal of a tumor on his right eye Tuesday morning in Evansville. He is recovering satisfactorily.

Mrs. Hubert Sisk of Pontiac, Mich., arrived in Harrisburg Monday to spend the next few weeks visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Winston Gidcumb and children.

A DOCTOR for BLUE JAY COVE

By ELIZABETH SEIFERT

XXX

When Alex reached the Haven after leaving Sue he found Cass sitting before the fire, alone. "The power's back on," she greeted him.

He shrugged his jacket, but not his boots or cap. She got up to go to the kitchen, and he followed her. "I can make you coffee."

"No, just a sandwich and some milk." He ate, standing, with his elbow hooked over the top of the refrigerator. And he told her of Mr. Graham's hand, about the auxiliary. And about Matt.

"Oh, Alex!" moaned Cass. "It's hit her hard. She's put up with a lot. Now, to have him walk out this way—Cass, would you go to her? She needs a woman to talk to. I did the best I could, but—"

Cass looked wryly down at her skirt, and at her barefoot sandals. "I can get over to the apartment," Alex offered. "Will hacked some. I'll clear a little better path. Tell me what to bring you."

She told him exactly what she'd need and where to find the things. Blue Jay Cove would long remember the storm of that August night. Would talk about it, and compare other storms to it—and hope none ever came to exceed its fierceness, or equal the damage it had done.

In the jargon of experts in such matters, a tropical storm had suddenly veered inland, followed the river to the precise thermal spot where a cold front from the north had met those storm clouds, touched off the whirling winds, and dumped moisture like an overturned tub of water upon that particular bend in the river.

A squall line of storms, of varying intensity—so the experts spoke of that night of terror.

Soon the little creek where Cass and Marcy had liked to swim roiled and deepened, boiled with the millions on millions of raindrops, turned a milk chocolate brown as the banks washed slippery with mud, and the waters rose between them, topped them—concealed them. Concealed the bridge, too, and the railings.

The creek raced, raced down the channel of the road, a creek no longer, but a foaming, white-laced flood at crest, taking everything in its course.

All through that night the waters rose; little waves licked at new banks, then new ones came behind them, pushing, heaving, shoving, and at last resolving into a conquering swell of muddy water which carried all before it, fence rails and tall trees, small animals, a battered boat, and the angle of a roof riding down the flood, turning slowly, spinning, rising, crashing. Across the fields went the water, across the road, gathering all before it. A child's tricycle, a garden chair. A car.

A little car, an old car, a blue one. And within it, a woman. It twisted, and turned, and was held finally by the branches of a tree too mighty to be uprooted even by such a mighty flood. The box of it filled with water; on its surface floated a leather bag until it came to the open window; it bumped there for a time, and finally floated out and away on the main current of the muddy, rolling stream.

But held behind the wheel of the car, pinned there, was a woman.

And the Police called Dr. Ward at House Springs Hospital. Someone said he was—had been—the dead woman's physician. Their voices were dry with horror as they added their tragic news to the load already carried upon that young man's shoulders. Last night Alex had readily handled the immediate crises of the storm and its developments. But this morning, faced with the mess which must be cleared away...

He put the phone down, and sat staring. His hand lifted to smooth back the crest of his black hair. As he did so, he noticed the white coat sleeve which dropped away from the lean bone of his wrist. He noticed the threads of the starched duck—with one thread a bit coarser than the others. He noticed those things because his mind balked at the barrier of this thing which he would have to face. "How awful!" Alex whispered. It was "awful." Because—he knew at once—Lenore dead would be almost as great a problem to him as would have been Lenore alive, able to carry out the thing which she had set out to do on the night of the storm.

For minutes the doctor sat and stared at his telephone. "What shall I do?" he asked himself. "What shall I do?"

He remembered the sentence or two of the telephone conversation which he'd overheard. Matt—and Lenore—had planned to meet somewhere last night. And the storm—perhaps they had taken the storm into account, and had planned to put it to their use. It was raining hard when Matt must have left the hospital—about five—but the wind had not attained its full fury, and certainly no flood had threatened.

Probably they had arranged to meet somewhere down the highway—their meeting unnoticed in the rain, the little coupe put into some small-town garage.

Alex supposed that Matt loved Lenore—had loved her—as much as Matt could love anyone. He'd wanted her, at any rate. And Lenore had certainly wanted him!

The thing that held Alex Ward immobile there at his desk was an awful, a terrible sense of destiny, of indomitable fate. He struggled to free himself of that hopeless, helpless feeling to no avail. (To Be Continued)

Says Russia Will Soon Have 5,000 Mile Hour Missiles

LONDON (AP)—Defense Minister Duncan Sandys said today that Russia "soon" will be able to launch guided missiles carrying nuclear warheads at speeds of over 5,000 miles an hour.

"So far no weapon has ever been invented to which there was no answer," Sandys told Parliament. "But it would be quite absurd to think that we shall be quick to evolve an effective defense against that form of attack."

"After the war the Russians took over the German rocket establishments and compelled German scientists to work for them," he said. "There is every reason to believe that the Russians have been developing a much enlarged version of the German V-2 rocket, but with the enormous difference that it will of course carry a nuclear warhead."

"The range of these rockets will probably be sufficient to reach Britain from launching points within Soviet-controlled territory."

Ask Switch in State Elections to Prevent 'Coattail Riding'

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Two House Democrats were trying today to switch state office elections to off-presidential years and prevent "coattail riding."

Reps. Samuel H. Shapiro, Kanakake, and Jack Baird, Waukegan, introduced a joint resolution Tuesday asking that a constitutional amendment be presented to the voters in 1958.

The amendment would provide that in 1960 only, the governor and other state officers would be elected for two years, instead of four. Then in 1962, state office terms would revert to four years, meaning they would be held in even-numbered years between presidential elections.

After the November, 1956 elections, Democrats claimed that national issues had overridden state issues and that Gov. William G. Stratton was pulled to victory on the president's coattails. Stratton won by about 36,000 votes, while the President carried by some 800,000.

Soviet Move for UN Debate on U. S. Plan Seen as Propaganda

SOVIET RAY

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Western diplomats today viewed the Soviet move for a U. N. discussion of the Eisenhower Middle East Doctrine as a pure propaganda maneuver to divert the world's attention from Hungary.

One diplomat said it appeared the Russians feared the Middle East situation was beginning to cool and that the spotlight would veer back to the Soviet crushing of the Hungarian people.

The General Assembly's Steering Committee scheduled a meeting for this afternoon to decide whether to place the Soviet request on the agenda for debate. The main political committee, meanwhile, continued its debate on Algeria.

Informed sources said the United States probably would raise no serious objection to a debate on its military policies if a majority of the other nations wanted to go along with the Russian demand.

One source pointed out that such a debate undoubtedly would result in more anti-Russian than anti-American speeches.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov sent a letter Tuesday to General Assembly President Prince Wan Waihayakon of Thailand demanding debate on the Eisenhower Doctrine and U. S. military policies as "acts of aggression" threatening world peace.

Quick discussion of the item would strengthen efforts aimed at

Carmi Surveys to Determine Number of Aldermen to Elect

CARMI, Ill. (AP)—Voters here do not know whether they will be electing 9, 15 or 18 aldermen in the April city election.

The city now has nine aldermen, three from each of the three wards. But the state says a city the size of Carmi should have at least five wards.

So a council-appointed committee made a survey. It recommends that the city have six wards.

The Daily Register 30c a week by carrier boy.

lessening world tension, Kuznetsov said. "A careful analysis of the international situation presents the conclusion that the policy of the United States more and more reflects aggressive tendencies which lead to a worsening of the international situation," Kuznetsov's four-page letter said.

Probe Reports of State Deals By Rep. Clabaugh

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Asst. State's Atty. John Howarth said today he is investigating reports that State Rep. Charles W. Clabaugh (R-Champaign) has sold window shades to the University of Illinois.

Howarth said the reports came to his attention within the last few days and he is still examining records in the case.

Meanwhile, at Champaign, President David D. Henry of the university reported through an aide that the university was making a full study of any dealings Clabaugh had with it and that a report would be issued on the findings.

Howarth has been assigned by State's Atty. J. Waldo Ackerman Jr. to investigate earlier reports that Clabaugh's construction firm was awarded state contracts for window and weatherstripping work.

Howarth said he has "not yet reached any conclusions" in his investigation and could not say whether there would be any evidence presented to a grand jury.

Examinations of records in the state architect's office showed Clabaugh's firm received subcontracts from principal contractors on state work and also had bid directly and won state contracts.

State law prohibits a legislator from dealing "directly or indirectly" in state contracts.

U. S. Communists Vote Freedom From Moscow Line

NEW YORK (AP)—The U. S. Communist Party decided "overwhelmingly" Tuesday to declare itself independent of the Moscow Party line.

A reported 300 delegates at the closing session of the party's closed-door 16th national convention also elected 20 members-at-large to a new national committee which included leaders from all three major factions.

William Z. Foster, 75-year-old national chairman, and Eugene Dennis, general secretary, lost their titles when they were elected to the new high command along with Daily Worker Editor John Gates.

The delegates voted to operate without any national officers for at least one year and also declared their right to criticize Russia and other Communist countries.

The Holstein breed of cattle was known at the time of Julius Caesar.

Dulles Planning Quick Trip to SEATO Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles is planning a quick trip to Australia early next month to attend a meeting of the eight-nation Southeast Asian Treaty Organization (SEATO).

Administration officials said today that Dulles will be in Canberra, Australia, for the SEATO conference March 11, 12 and 13.

Dulles will not make a large-scale tour of Asia this year as he did in 1956 when he visited 10 nations in conjunction with his trip to the SEATO meeting in Pakistan. This time he will hurry back to Washington to be on hand for talks with a large number of foreign visitors coming to the United States in the spring and to prepare for the March 21-24 meeting at Bermuda between President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

USW President Wins Re-Election; Big Protest Vote

PITTSBURGH (AP)—United Steelworkers President David J. McDonald appeared a handy winner today in his bid for re-election, but his millhand opponent rolled up a sizeable "protest" vote in the steel centers of Pennsylvania.

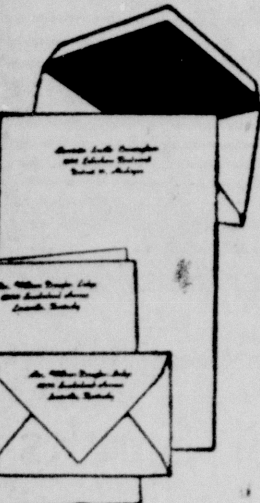

Heavy majorities in the mills of the West and South built McDonald's lead over Don C. Rarick, candidate of a dissident group in the 1,200,000-member union, to insurmountable proportions.

McDonald ran into difficulty principally in steel-producing areas of Pittsburgh, Johnstown and some eastern sections of Pennsylvania.

With unofficial returns from more than 500 of the union's 2,700 local unions tabulated, the tally showed: McDonald 98,106, Rarick 23,031.

Communists Are Not Welcome, Chicagoans Say

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicagoans yanked the welcome mat from under the feet of the Communist Party.

Labor, industrial, civic and public officials agreed today that the Communists are "not welcome in Chicago or Illinois."

The Reds, at their party convention, announced plans to move their headquarters "lock, stock and barrel" from New York to Chicago within one year.

The Communists said they decided on the move because Chicago is the heart of the farm belt and has a large concentration of Negro workers who "play an important part in key unions."

Mayor Richard J. Daley was the first to protest.

"The people of Chicago don't want them here," Daley said.

"Why don't they go to Moscow?" Daley's feelings were echoed by Ralph Helstein, president of the United Packinghouse Workers of America, whose 120,000 membership is 35 per cent Negro.

"The Communist Party is about to go out of business," Helstein said. "There's no place for Communists in Chicago or any other place in America."

Two Men, Woman Plead Innocent To Spying Charges

NEW YORK (AP)—Two men and a woman pleaded innocent today to charges of spying for Russia. If convicted they could receive a death penalty.

They were remanded to jail without bail by Federal Judge Gregory F. Noonan who commented that if the Russian government has any interest in the accused spies it wouldn't be stopped by the $100,000 bail previously set for the three.

Noonan set March 11 on which to announce a trial date for Jack Sobel, 53, his wife, Myra, 52, and Jacob Albam, 64.

White House is Considering A-Shelter Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House has under "active consideration" an atomic shelter program that could cost $20 billion to $40 billion, a Budget Bureau official testified today.

But Assistant Budget Director Robert E. Merriam, said the White House is not yet ready to recommend such a program to Congress. He mentioned the high cost as one deterring factor.

Merriam testified before the House Government Operations subcommittee on civil defense.

The group headed by Rep. Chet Holifield (D-Calif.), is backing a bill for a mass construction of shelters that would be available to virtually all Americans.

Wife of Kentucky Star Player is Incurably Stricken

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UP) — Ed Beck, first string center for the University of Kentucky, has continued to play basketball despite the knowledge his wife is stricken with an incurable disease.
The university, in an announcement, said Mrs. Beck, the former Billie Justine Ray, is critically ill at a Macon, Ga., hospital with lung cancer.
Beck, a Methodist minister, visited her before the recent Mississippi game at Memphis and rejoined the team to play against Mississippi State Monday night.
Coach Adolph Rupp said Mrs. Beck urged the 6-foot-7, 20-year-old junior "to return to school and get a good education . . . she told him there is nothing he can do."

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT PTA MEETING

Many patrons of Carrier Mills PTA showed great interest in their school and children by attending the February meeting last Thursday evening. The crowd was estimated to be between 350 and 400. And all were richly rewarded by their attendance.
The first graders started the show with Vicki Hill and Freddie Bailey singing "Washington and Lincoln." Then the group sang a medley consisting of "London Bridge," "Farmer in the Dell," "Making Valentines," "Battle Hymn of Republic," accompanied on the piano by their teacher, Rena Brackney.
Rev. Carl Davis, Methodist minister, gave a most entertaining reading entitled "Oh, Dentist." His portrayal of folks in a dentist's office was a great delight to anyone who had been there.
The highlight of the evening was a skit put on by the fathers and men teachers of the school children depicting life in a "PTA in Upper Slobovia." The celebrities who attended this meeting were — Mrs. Gluckenhoffer and son (Raymond Rann and Joe Rodocker), Grandma Moses (Max Rodocker), Patti Page (James Thornton) who sang Tennessee Waltz, accompanied on the piano by Charles Rann and the off stage voice of Thelma Jenkins, Libera and George (Van Parsons) and Paul McSparin) who dedicated "Missouri Waltz" to Carrier Mills PTA. George's off stage violinist was Wayne Brackney.
Elvis Presley (Eldon Rice) caused the girls (some past teen age, too) to scream and swoon by singing "Hound Dog" and "Don't Be Cruel." Elvis himself was never received with greater enthusiasm. Charles Rann never did find Marge Davis but the "McGuire Sisters" (Robert Whitney, A. J. Henshaw, and Freeman Dale Pankey) arrived in time to sing "No More" and to put on a good show. Finally the president and spouse (Harry Yocum and Ellis Simpson) arrived and the PTA of Upper Slobovia ended.
But not the Carrier Mills PTA meeting. During the business

IT'S HIGH TIME TO GET THOSE ANTI-POLIO SHOTS

The following article is an extract from an editorial in the Feb. 4, 1957 issue of the Saturday Evening Post.

Who would have imagined a few years ago that, once a safe and effective weapon against polio could be found, people would fail to take advantage of it? Yet it is happening. The reasons, authorities say, is public apathy.

For instance, after Dr. Salk's polio vaccine discovery, some 43,000,000 children received one shot only. Then for some reason were allowed to quit. Even more tragic, as late as 1956 only 7,000,000 persons out of 60,000,000 under age of twenty had received the full course of three shots.

This is all the more difficult to understand in the face of the fact that, according to the United States Public Health Service and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, effectiveness and safety of the Salk vaccine, when all three shots are given, are believed to have been firmly established. As late as December, 1956, on cases officially diagnosed, no child died who had all three doses of vaccine. Paralytic polio cases reported has dropped from 10,006 cases in December, 1955, to 6311 cases in December, 1956. Yet some 18,000,000 doses lie idle and unused in drug warehouses, physician's offices, etc.

In New York City, only 441 children in the 15-19 age group had received their full three shots as of September 30, 1956. There has been a tremendous lag in getting these shots. The best job has been done in the 5 to 9 age group.

It should be remembered that Dr. Salk recommends all adults up to 50 years get the vaccine, since one-fourth of all cases are in persons 20 years or older. Even more important, 70 per cent of all respiratory cases are also in this age group.

Of course, there have been genuine reasons for some of the delay in securing this protection. The vaccine did not become generally available until last June. In some communities children were given one shot before the end of the term and parents failed to pick up where the school left off. Apparently, money has been a factor in low-income groups. Also the fact that some pain is involved when a needle is put in the arm.

Children who have not received their full three shots of Salk vaccine should begin the treatment without delay, as the polio season begins in a few months. School and local health officers, as well as family physicians, should get behind the campaign and make it their business to see what can be done to improve the situation by persuading their patients to protect themselves. Basically, the success of our national effort to wipe out polio is up to each individual American with capacity to think and do his part.
